The Application will be validated by the Organiser who would admit the applicant to participate in the event. The notification of the admission will need to be confirmed by the exhibitor in writing by email, subsequently entering into a contractual relationship with the Organiser. There is no automatic entitlement of participation upon submission of the Application.

The exhibitor is responsible for providing the Organiser (online portal) with all the necessary information to complete the online exhibitors profile and will be available for a telephone conversation to discuss and align other profile related issues.

The exhibitor will follow the guidelines of the Organiser concerning the presentation of products. No extra marketing or advertising material such as posters or other visual and audio carriers are permitted.

Exhibitors will need to be fully available with a readily fitted presentation station as of 09h30 on the day of the event. The exhibition venue will be accessible as of 07h30 on the day of the event for the exhibitors to equip their presentation station.
